

Tax Planning 2020 and Year End Preparations

30 June remains the deadline for end-of-financial-year preparations.

Trustees have a strong duty to ensure that they are complying with current and past legislation requirements, particularly in light of COVID-19 implanted legislation that could affect your fund.

Trustees should complete their annual review to ensure they are meeting their obligations under the SMSF rules and guidelines.

SMSF – tax planning and year end preparations

	IF YOU.....	YOU MAY WANT TO	SO YOU CAN
Review Asset Values	Have assets at year end	Ensure you have their market value ready as at year end values. Property must be re-valued every three years.	Meet audit requirements. Member balances properly reflect asset values, especially for an individual's Total Super Balance (TSB) and pension payments.
Investment Strategy	Trustees responsibility	Complete this annually, formulate and implement and be in writing.	Comply

	IF YOU.....	YOU MAY WANT TO	SO YOU CAN
Trustee decisions documented	Trustees responsibility	Complete minutes of decisions	Comply
Collate documents	Trustees responsibility	Perform the End of year finalisation of your file	Comply
Estate planning	Trustees responsibility	Wills, Binding Death Nomination Forms and Letter of Wishes are up-to-date	Wishes are upheld after death
Contribution Strategy	Maximise deductible contributions (concessional contributions)	Review concessional cap for 2020FY is $25,000	Maximise tax deduction
Re-contribution Strategy	Pension re-draw	Redraw your pension from your fund and re-contribute amounts to the fund	Reduce tax, while maintaining your same net cash balance in your Fund.
Concessional Contributions (CC)	Are able to carry forward your used concessional contributions cap amounts from 1 July 2018. Ensure you have met your non-concessional (after-tax contributions cap of $100,000.	The first year in which you can increase your CC Cap by the amount of unused cap is 2019-2020 but only if you have a total superannuation balance of less than $500,000 at the end of 30 June in the previous year. Or accessed the bring forward rule of 3 years.	Unused amounts are available for a maximum of five years and will expire after 30 June 2022. Maximise your balance in super for retirement.
Personal Concessional Contributions (after-tax)	Personally, contribute after tax monies into super.	Contribute an amount less than $25,000, which includes your mandated super contribution made by your employer.	Claim a personal deduction for personal superannuation contributions from your salary and wages

	IF YOU.....	YOU MAY WANT TO	SO YOU CAN
COVID – 19	Are able to temporarily reduce pension payments on common pensions and account-based pensions and market linked pensions	Withdraw only 50% of required pension for 2019-2020 and 2020-2021 financial years. Amend your pension strategy to meet the ‘new min pension standards’.	Reduce the cashing of assets at lower market value and/or assets that are not paying out so much dividends/interest/rent. Ensure that the min pension payment is made to avoid paying tax on investment income at 15%, verses tax free.
	Lodgement date of 30 June 2020 is in place for all SMSF trustees. The $1.6M transfer cap applies to members who are receiving a pension.	This ensures you are receiving a tax-free status on assets that support a pension. Ensure you are aware of the consequences of excess transfer balances and avoid exceeding the cap.	Different total superannuation balance thresholds exist for SMSF. Ensure you are aware of your funds total superannuation balance especially if contributing, have exempt pension income or transfer balance account reporting.
Pension payment	Are a pensioner	Must pay minimum pension prior to YE. Refer to table re age and min pension percentage	Comply
